ALASKA DEMOCRATS MEET AT JUNEAU

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Juneau, May 25.—All is harmony at the democratic district convention which convened here this morning under auspicious circumstances. Robert W. Jennings, of Skagway, was temporary chairman, and delivered a great speech which aroused the delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm. He took strong ground in favor of territorial government, and denounced the imperialistic tendencies of the present administration. He predicted that Alaska would never get fair treatment at the hands of the federal government until there was in the White House an executive well grounded in Jeffersonian democracy, who believed that all power is inherent in the people.

Attorney Cosgrove, of Ketchikan, was made temporary secretary of the convention.

Chairman Jennings appointed the following committees:

Resolutions—Swineford, Ketchikan; Burns, Skagway; Davidson and Cobb, Juneau; Fenton, Nome.

Credentials—Duckworth, Treadwell; Epsteyn, Juneau; Hentz, Douglas.

Order of business and permanent organization—Teal, Juneau; McHugh, Wrangell; Agnew, Sitka.

After the appointment of the committees, the convention adjourned until 3 o'clock.

The session of the convention was attended by a large crowd. The brass band is out and the day perfect.

Judge A. K. Delaney will probably be permanent chairman.

DEMOCRATS MAY NAME FOLK

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Cleveland, May 25.—Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, says Joseph W. Folk, the intrepid district attorney of St. Louis, will be the democratic nominee for president. In an interview today Mayor Johnson declared that at the national convention the forces of Hearst and Parker will unite in forcing the choice of Folk for president.
